To Denison S.K. Miller Esq

Dear Mr Miller,

On the occasion of your return to the Commonwealth after a visit to London and other financial centres of the World during War time, in connection with the Bank's business, we, the Officers of the Bank throughout the Commonwealth, desire to welcome you back amongst us.

It was with great relief that we learned you had safely passed through the War Zone, and we feel it is only owing to your high sense of duty that you undertook the dangers of the voyage during the progress of the War. May we, therefore, on behalf of the Staff throughout the Commonwealth, take this opportunity to extend to you a cordial welcome home, and also express the hope that you will long remain at the head of this great Institution, which has flourished and progressed under your guiding hand.

Yours Sincerely
on behalf of the Staff
